Greenville Tech selects Global Financial Aid Services for Student Centric Financial Aid Processing

GULFPORT, MISSISSIPPI – 5/05/07 -- Global Financial Aid Services, Inc.®, a leading provider of independent front office and back office financial aid administration services, announced today that Greenville Technical College has signed a contract with Global Financial Aid Services® to provide Front Office financial aid counseling and administration for their four campuses with over 14,400 students.

Through Global's people, process and technology approach, Greenville Tech will achieve results including improved student service and better competitive positioning. A key to Global's approach is to proactively counsel prospective and admitted students on the affordability of college and the financing options per the Institutional policies. Global removes the confusion and complexity of the financial aid process to the student.

"Global's services further strengthen our commitment to our students and our community to provide convenient and affordable access to education", stated Dr. Nancy Welch, Vice President of Student Services for Greenville Technical College.

"We are pleased to partner with a progressive Institution such as Greenville Tech. They have a strong commitment to serving students and to the development of the community in South Carolina." stated Matthew Johnner, Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Global Financial Aid Services. "Global's processes will provide timely financial aid counseling and processing to Greenville's prospective and admitted students; thereby clearing the path to creating a brighter future for the student and their family."
